The Overton Hotel.—Chief among the attractions to be found in the prosperous city of Memphis is the large and commodious structure at the corner of Main and Poplar streets, and known as the Overton Hotel. Without doubt one of the finest and best arranged establishments of the kind in the entire South; in fact, it is a palatial home, where the public generally will find warm, comfortable rooms, unexceptionable beds and bed-clothing, and a bill of fare second to none. Messrs. Waddell, Steadman, & Gal loway, the proprietors, have wisely chosen their assistants, each one of whom seems to understand "how to keep hotel." We cannot close this unworthy notice without returning thanks to Capt. C. E. Miller, "the man at the desk," for the many kindnesses he has pleased to bestow upon us wayfaring knight of the quill. If you put up at the Overton be sure to shake hands with Miller.

INTERNAL REVENUE.—Our friend, Dr. H. Black, since taking charge of his "collectors-ship" has been doing a driving business in the way of getting money out of us "poor devils" for the benefit of "God knows who." He can be found at the counting room of Messrs. Fleming & Ussery. The Dr. is disposed to be as lenient and accommodating as the Laws will permit, and is giving as general satisfaction as it is possible for a man holding his position to do. If you want to save cost call on him immediately.

SNOW AND HEAVY RAIN.—Last night one week ago snow fell in this neighborhood to the depth of eight or nine inches. By the middle of the present week it all disappeared, since which time heavy rains have fallen thick and fast. It is expected that Hatchie river will become swollen to an unprecedented height as it was newly bank full before the snow and rains came on. We fear that another destruction to cattle in the low-lands will be the result.

IF YOU CAN.—Persons indebted to this office are earnestly requested to call and settle if they can. We are in debt ourselves and desire to square up on all sides. Come along gentlemen, are you are pressed into the loyal militia!

PHENIX.—A. F. Fleming is still chief of the yardstick and the observed of all observers in the mammoth dry goods store of Fleming & Ussery. Ladies, if you desire bargains, be sure to ask for A. F., as he is a candidate for a certain state commencing with an "m" and which baffles the descriptive powers of the oldest quill driver in or out of this state! Charlie Gray is also anxious to see the smiling faces of those who desire to purchase groceries. Charlie is always on hand, and though he is not particularly partial to any class of customers—save those who buy for cash—he will fill orders at Memphis prices, freight alone added. He is located just two doors east of the house so long known as Pitzer Miller's old stand.

We desire to call attention to the Bolivar Male Academy, which institution, under the control of Prof. J. M. Hubbard, is in a more flourishing condition than at any period since the commencement of the war. Prof. Hubbard is devoting his whole time and attention to his academy, and is giving general satisfaction to his patrons. His school has increased at such a rate in the last few weeks that he will be compelled to employ an assistant to take charge of the primary department when he will have the more time and attention to devote to his more advanced students.

PHYSICAL.—Our town has been visited during the last week by our friend Capt. Jas. R. Miller, of Memphis, whose health has been entirely restored since his visit here during the summer of 1864. We are pleased to see Capt. Miller looking so well, and will always extend a welcome hand to him as well as his many friends in Bolivar. Capt. Miller is still representing the flourishing and enterprising wholesale and retail establishment of Messrs. Walker, Bros. & Co., Main street, Memphis. This house is too well known in our country to require any endorsement from us. We had the pleasure of examining their stock during our last visit to Memphis and found it complete in every respect. Their trade during the fall and winter has been very satisfactory, and they are now making arrangements for the receipt of an immense spring stock. With such gentlemanly and popular clerks as Capt. Miller, Tom Allen, John H. Taylor and Wm. E. Taylor, the gallant Co. of the 7th Tennessee Cavalry, they are bound to trade.

COMMERCIAL.
Livestock, February 14.—Cotton declined; middling uplands, 14 1/2; sales to-day, 7000 bales; breadstuffs, quiet.
Memphis, Feb. 14.—Cotton, middlings 27 1/2; Gold, 135; Dressed hogs 10 1/2; clear sides 16 1/2; Salt per bush, 35 1/2; New Orleans molasses, new, 80 1/2 per gallon. Sugar, N. O., good article, 14 1/2.
The freedmen of Columbia, Tenn. have organized an association for the purpose of caring for destitute blacks.

Accidentally Killed.—We are pained to learn that Mrs. Mary Marberry, wife of P. H. Marberry, Merchant, and Master of the Ohio Canal Boat, was accidentally killed on the 27th inst. by the falling of a limb from a tree. [Dyersburg Gazette, 2d.]

MEMPHIS BUSINESS NOTICES.

CLOTHING.—For fine clothing and furnishing goods, go to J. H. Waggoner & Co., Clark's marble block. They are first class merchants, and sell goods at wholesale or retail.

LIGHT.—If you want a cheap, neat and beautiful light, go to Blood & Co., 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street. They deal in oils, lamps, lanterns, stoves, zinc, lead and tin-ware.

DAY.—We speak by the card when we say that Prof. Y. Day is the artist of Memphis. His rooms are at the corner of Union and Main streets. If you desire life-like pictures patronize him—his prices are low and uniform.

DIXIE.—Remember that Dixie is the man—you can see him at his saloon near the New Memphis Theatre—he will furnish you with comfort for the inner man.

WEATHERBERG.—In the rear of the Senate building, Jefferson street, between Main and Second, is located Harry Weatherber's gem of a saloon. His wines and liquors are all of the purest and best brands.

TONSORIAL.—When you visit Memphis, be sure to call on Joseph Lory; you will find him at his Excelsior saloon in the Worsham House. He is the leader of the fashion.

HARDWARE.—Choate & Co., at No. 232 Front street, deal in hardware of all kinds, stoves, plows, farming implements, tin-ware, etc., and sell at northern prices.

NEW ORLEANS RIOT.—A Washington telegram, dated 10th, says:

"The majority report of the New Orleans Riot Committee is published. It says the riot is fully arrived when Congress should secure a Republican form of Government to the people of Louisiana, and that since the surrender of the rebel armies the rebellion has assumed another form, and now controls the Government through the same agencies that led their armies; and the present civil government of Louisiana should be suspended, and a proper military government be established and maintained until Louisiana is controlled by loyal men."

A bill accompanies the report, that the rebels should be enfranchised by a naturalization process from the U. S. Courts.
